COMMUNITY OPERATIONS ORG CHART

Resident Employment Services (RES)

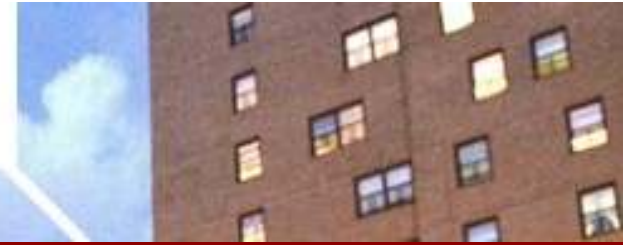

RES is comprised of the following units/divisions:

- Career Development
- Employment Development
- Contract Management and Resource Development
- Construction and Apprenticeship Training

Resident Employment Services (RES)

- Resident Employment Services focuses on assisting residents who are recipients of public assistance, unemployed, or under-employed, in becoming economically self-sufficient through the provision of job placement, training, business development, supportive service and educational opportunities.
- To accomplish this goal, staff conducts recruitment and outreach, intake and assessment and subsequent referrals to education, job training, employment and business development opportunities.

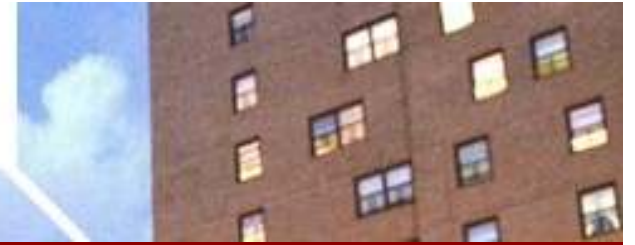

Section 3

Section 3 is a HUD mandate that employment and other economic opportunities generated by federal assistance to public housing authorities shall, to the greatest extent feasible and with best faith efforts, be directed to public housing residents and other low and very low income persons

NYCHA's first priority for hiring under Section 3 is for residents of its developments

NEW YORK CITY HOUSING AUTHORITY

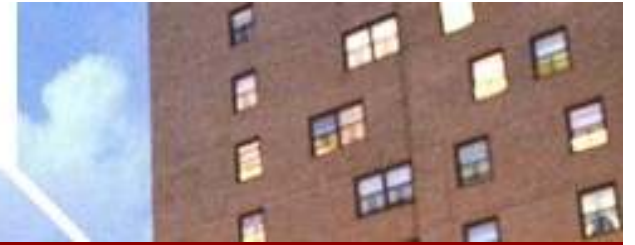

Resident Employment Program (REP)

The Resident Employment Program is a NYCHA-sponsored program

REP requires that 15% of the labor amount for a contract is expended on resident hiring

REP applies to construction contracts valued in excess of $500,000 that were bid on or after January 1, 2001

RES 2005 Statistical Data

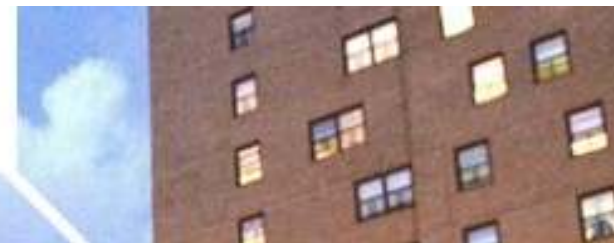

- 127,327 mailings for training and employment opportunities.
- 1,581 applicants were tested to determine program eligibility.
- 1,491 of the 1,581 applicants were referred to job and training programs
- 1569* job placements for NYCHA residents from 2003 to 2005 (*final placement numbers will be available in the first quarter of 2006).

RES Accomplishments FY 2005

- Hosted the 1st "Empowerment through Employment" Job Fair--335 NYCHA residents, 35 employers, and 17 training vendors were in attendance.
- Established the Contract Management & Resource Development and Construction and Apprenticeship Training Units.
- Extended the Resident Opportunity Self Sufficiency (ROSS) HUD funded grant to include two additional cycles for 30 residents.

JULY 2006

15 Residents Prepared for Apprenticeships

By Allan Leicht

Fifteen newly certified and empowered young New York City Housing Authority (NYCHA) residents were showered with diplomas, certificates, licenses, awards, applause, laughter, cheers and tears in the ceremonial room of NYCHA's Resident Employment Services in Brooklyn, on the afternoon of May 19th. The graduates are now prepared for full-fledged union apprenticeships in the construction trades. They are the Minority Worker Training (MWT) Class of 2006.

Master of Ceremonies and MWT Program Coordinator David Meyers welcomed the graduates, their families, and MWT faculty and Housing Authority officials, urging the graduates to build on their success. "You are on the frontier of a new initiative," Mr. Meyers said. "Be great. Be excellent."

MWT is a not-for-profit organization that is run by the Chicago-
